Instructed By Thomas Loftis, U.S. Attorney's Office

The BELOW 100 Mission is to reduce line-of-duty police deaths to less than 100 per year; a number we haven't seen since 1944. The intensive (or core) training course is designed to provide officers with vital information aimed at reducing the amount of preventable operational incidents in daily law enforcement that contribute to the majority of line-of-duty deaths.
